

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

THREE ROUGHS LAID OUT BY A CONDUCTOR.

Caused a Disturbance on a Taylor Car and Then Assaulted Conductor Capwell. Much to Their Sorrow, Ladies' Society Enjoys a Trolley Ride—Counter Prosecution Instituted—Stole Green Goods—Funeral of Joseph Cossini—General News Notes and Personals.

On board a Taylor-Throp car last night that leaves the central city about 6 o'clock, bound for Taylor, were three men who had been imbibing of firewater during the day to a considerable extent. From the time the car left the central city until it reached the switch, near Feltz patch, these men had been the cause of much disturbance to the conductor and of considerable annoyance to all the passengers.

The affair, however, reached a climax at the above-mentioned place, much to the joy of all on board and to the sorrow of the disturbers. After the car had left the city line the conductor demanded another fare of them. After much trouble he succeeded in collecting the fare and went on about his duties, collecting the rest of the fares. When he returned to the rear of the car where these men were seated, they claimed they had each given him a dime.

Conductor Capwell explained to them that they had only given him a nickel. When Feltz patch was reached, Conductor Capwell jumped off the car at the switch to throw on the signal light for the inbound car. At the same time these men alighted and, before any one was aware, pounced upon the conductor, but he was able to care for himself in a manner that caused surprise to his assailants.

The conductor dealt each a solar-plexus blow, and when the car pulled out of the switch the unconscious drunks lay by the wayside. The conductor was unharmed.

Conductor Capwell is of short stature, but is possessed of proper grit.

The committee will report their answer to the assemblage and the matter will be again debated.

At all previous meetings held the newspaper men have been refused admission, but at the meeting on Saturday evening it is more than likely they will be admitted. The matter was brought up at the last meeting and the majority were in favor of allowing them to be present at the meeting.

Among the things the committee will recommend will be a general movement throughout the entire region to bring about a readjustment of wages by a reduction in the price of powder.

RISE IN THE PRICE OF MEAT.

Wholesalers' Advance Will Increase Restaurant Charges. New York, Aug. 15.—The price of meat in this city is higher than at any time since the Chicago riots, and restaurant keepers say they will be obliged to raise menu-card prices. The advance is of about 8 per cent. for all cuts.

No butcher can supply meat at the same price he did two weeks ago and continue in business. It is probable that the Hotelkeepers' association, on the strength of the wholesalers' advance, will hold a meeting to raise prices of fare.

GORED BY A VICIOUS BULL.

Animal Had to Be Driven from Victim with Pitchforks. Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 15.—Joseph Snyder, a wealthy farmer of Jackson township, Dauphin county, was terribly gored by a vicious bull yesterday, while he was turning the animal into the pasture field. The bull knocked him down, then tossed him, and would have killed him had not Mr. Snyder's wife and daughter run to the rescue with pitchforks and drove the bull away.

Mr. Snyder's collar bone is broken in two places, his ribs broken and his face badly cut. His condition is critical.

Retired Officer Resigns.

Washington, Aug. 15.—The resignation of Major Robert H. White, United States army, retired, has been accepted by the president. Major White was in the medical department and retired in July, 1888, at his own request after thirty years' service. He was appointed from Virginia and his reason is given for his resignation though he insisted upon its being accepted. It is unusual for a retired officer to resign, and especially as he relinquishes the pay amounting to three-fourths of the rank he held at the time of retirement.
